Conditions of Use

The applicant agrees to send The Bancroft Library one complimentary copy of the work containing the reproduction.

The Bancroft Library retains all rights to reproductions of photographs including the right to grant others permission to reproduce the photographs. Additional copies must be purchased from The Bancroft Library. The photographic copy or any facsimile of it may not be reproduced beyond the intended use described in the Pictorial Permission Form.

Permission for publication is granted for one-time use and only for the expressed purpose described in this contract. Any subsequent use or change in use constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing to The Bancroft Library, and appropriate fees paid. Permission is limited to the applicant and is not transferable. Permission for use is not granted until all fees are paid.

Request reproductions of materials in The Bancroft Library's collection by submitting the Photographic Services Information and Order Form available online at <http://bancroft.berkeley.edu/reference/dsu/forms/orderform.pdf>.

All negatives and transparencies remain the property of The Bancroft Library and must be returned within the stipulated loan period.

Altering the original photographic image beyond standard cropping or resizing requires further discussion with Staff. These changes must be indicated in the accompanying caption or label.

The photographic copy may not be used as a dust jacket, an end paper, nor in an advertisement or any commercial or promotional use of a similar nature, nor to mass reproduce as unbound material unless specifically authorized by this contract.

In authorizing the publication of a photographic copy, The Bancroft Library does not surrender its own right to publish it, or to grant permission to others to do so. All rights are non-exclusive.

Rights are offered for a maximum period of ten years. The Bancroft Library does not issue rights in perpetuity.

The Bancroft Library reserves the right to limit the number of photographic copies; to restrict the use of reproduction of rare or valuable material involving unusual difficulty in copying; and to charge a higher duplication fee than specified. Copies are not supplied to commercial picture agencies except by special arrangement.
