WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

- The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.
- Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any other purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
- This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

The Bancroft Library provides photocopies following guidelines intended to protect the originals, and only when the condition of the original permits. The Library reserves the right to decline or to truncate copy orders. In some instances, only camera copying may be possible. Bancroft staff will make a reasonable effort to notify requestors of such alternatives at the time an order is placed. If such determination is made after an order has been submitted, no copies will be made until the requestor has submitted a new order form authorizing alternative processing.

I make this request in accordance with the provisions of the copyright law and the policies of the Bancroft Library.
